

*What if you knew who the next big star was going to be, years before the rest of the world?
The next Julia Roberts. The next Jessica Simpson. The next Adam Sandler.*

*Somewhere in the world are tomorrow's biggest stars.
And there's only one place you'll find tomorrow's stars, today.*

Seeing StarsTM

America's top psychics cast their starry eyes upon America's entertainment landscape in search of tomorrow's stars, today, on entertainment's most exciting new television show

Seeing Stars is a weekly, 30-minute show on which a panel of world-renowned psychics locate tomorrow's biggest stars wherever they may be throughout America.

From rural honkytonks to urban theaters and from backwoods saloons to urbane comedy clubs, Seeing Stars camera crews and reporters - directed to the venues by the Seeing Stars intuitives - will allow America to get an in-depth look at the utter unknowns whose names will soon grace marquees across the world.

Like the famed knock on the door from a Publisher's Clearinghouse road crew, Seeing Stars crews will be traveling the country bestowing news of impending fame and fortune on performers who currently can barely pay their phone bills. The knowledge that poverty and professional frustrations will soon give way to fame and fortune will forever change the trajectory of the individuals' lives.

Seeing Stars combines all of the excitement of American Idol, Star Search and many more of the successful star-is-born programs but adds an unparalleled, psychic-futuristic touch to one of America's favorite television formats.

Future stars in a wide array of endeavors will be featured, including:
